++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wet and windy overnight. Bright but blustery with showers Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining showers should die away into the evening, only to be replaced by a swathe of heavy rain sweeping eastwards on strengthening winds, with coastal gales later in the night. Clear periods developing later, with blustery coastal showers following on. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Early rain clearing east, with sunny spells and scattered blustery showers following for many, however further cloud and rain perhaps affecting the north later. Generally windy, especially in coastal areas. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Becoming drier, warmer and brighter on the whole in this period, with winds also less strong. Wednesday probably brightest. Early fog patches possible Thursday and Friday.
